1. I wish to express my thanks for your willing support and hospitality in hosting the WAOCC Conference in the NMCC recently. The briefings and capability demonstration were very much appreciated by the members. Such joint events are critical to the operations/intelligence interface as we demonstrate again that our tasks and our capabilities make us truly a single community.

2. I would like to especially commend Colonel Steve Siegfried to you for his knowledgeable and professional presentations that day. He made the day a learning experience for us. Steve is a supportive and valued member of our group. Well done.
